The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 7-9, 16-36, 40-42 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected inventions-the new claims recite the non-elected invention, but would be considered if claim 1 is allowable, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 8.

Claims 1-6, 10-11, 13, 14, 37-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. It is not evident to examiner where support lies, if any, to non toxic, otherwise not defined, to humans.

Claims 1-6, 10-14, 37-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is not clear what is intended by the "during-initial phase" –if a procedure constitutes the initial phase, it should be claimed; it time, it should be claimed.

"Predetermined" should be further explained, how, by whom?

Claims 1-6, 10-14, 38, 39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Henshaw-WO 97/555470.

The rejection of record is maintained.

Henshaw at least has the method steps of the instant invention, although not stating it is a method of testing.

Further; testing proceeded, but any reasonable duration of testing a subacute, or acute study would be known by one of ordinary skill in the art to range over the period tested; whether 3, 5, 7, 10, 14, 21 or 28 days, utilizing well recognized testing protocols.

Claims 1-6, 10-14, 37-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Takashi and Henshaw in view of NCI '76.

The rejection of record is maintained.

The instant methods are seen as normal testing protocols one would utilize in order to determine a desired efficacy, and/or toxicity, and any toxicological investigator would incorporate these steps, as NCI shows and Takashi and Henshaw have.

Applicants arguments are seen as identification of a subset of motivation and procedures, constitutes a novel or non-obvious invention, but the set of toxicological testing, and rodenticide testing includes all the elements applicant claims. We therefore see no non-obvious or novel basis for patent ability.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
